benefits and conditions

your centexbel
membership optimizes your chances for a sustainable economic success !

Companies or company groups with social seat within the EEA (European Economic Area) can become an associated member of Centexbel on the condition of payment of the annual membership contribution.

The Centexbel direction reserves the right to refuse candidates or to cancel any existing membership.

Services and benefits of the associated membership

- You will receive the membership discount on testing and consulting orders according to the conditions mentioned in the official pricelist
- Membership is a necessary (but not sufficient) condition to participate in collective research projects
- You will enjoy the advantageous membership subscription fees for seminars and events
- You receive the monthly electronic newsletter "Centexbel INFO"
- You are involved in the standardisation activities of Centexbel

Conditions

- The membership contribution amounts to 500 EURO (less than 50 employees) or 1250 EURO (more than 50 employees) per juridical entity.
- The associated membership is tacitly renewed. Cancellation shall proceed in writing at least 3 months before the end of the current working year. In the event of cancellation, the contribution will be considered as being definitely acquired by Centexbel.
- The associated membership of a company cannot be transferred.
- A membership started in the course of the running fiscal year does not involve any retroactivity concerning membership discounts on previously performed testing and consulting orders.
- Centexbel has the right to make your affiliation public.
